CHECKING OUT

Our trip to the library was an excellent first excursion for our young scholars. The kids were very well behaved and still managed to enjoy themselves. I trust the information the library supplied is helpful and perhaps next time we go, more of the children will check out books.

This week is a short week due to a scheduled professional development day. I will spend the day catching up on a few projects, planning ahead, and working on the upcoming events. If you have any ideas that you thought would help build our program, feel free to send an email. Also please pray for wisdom and creativity as I plan!

LANGUAGE

- This week saw our 1st grade students continue building on their knowledge of phonics rules including silent e and y as a vowel sound. In grammar class we continue working with nouns and verbs. We also practiced writing our personal information.

- Our kindergarten students began putting simple words together to make simple sentences. Our first jump into a reader is close at hand!

MATH - See the extra math note.

SCIENCE

The trip to the library was in part meant to help us with the science question we are examining. We have asked, "What happens to the wild areas around the building over time?" At the library we looked at some books that had a seasons theme.

MUSIC

We spent one last week with Mr. Bach and were delighted to have Anita Gomez play some of his pieces for us live.

GRANDPARENTS' LUNCHEON

Thursday, October 30th, 11:30AM

We would like to invite grandparents and grandparent-like friends to visit for a light lunch and witness first hand what we are doing. We will use the opportunity to practice reciting before an audience.

Please send me the names and addresses of anyone you would like us to invite.

BRADFORD NIGHT

Thursday, November 20th, 7 PM

In light of our school's namesake, we are planning a special evening before the Thanksgiving holiday. William Bradford and his band of Pilgrims will be remembered as we demonstrate the work we have begun at Bradford Academy.

Friends and family are all welcome.

LIBRARY TRIP

Special thanks to our fearless children's department librarian Catherine Harkey who showed our students around. Our library is really something of which our small city can be proud! Thanks also to our drivers, Amy and Ashley!
